BARNABY LENON

About

Page

Barnaby Lenon CBE – Dean of Education, University of Buckingham; former Head of Harrow School.

Barnaby Lenon CBE

Barnaby Lenon is Dean of Education at the University of Buckingham. He was head of Harrow School for twelve years and chairman of the Independent Schools Council for thirteen. He has published eight books and was awarded a CBE for his contribution to education in England.

Current roles

- Dean of Education, University of Buckingham
- Trustee, King Edward's Foundation, Birmingham (14 schools)
- Trustee, Yellow Submarine (charity for young people with learning disabilities, Oxford)

Career in schools

- Head, Harrow School (12 years)
- Headmaster, Trinity School, Croydon
- Deputy Head, Highgate School
- Teacher, Eton College (12 years)
- Teacher, Sherborne School

Wider education roles

- Chairman, Independent Schools Council (13 years)
- Board member, Ofqual (6 years)
- Board member, New Schools Network
- Co-founder, London Academy of Excellence, a state free school in Newham, east London (opened 2012)
- Governor of twenty-three schools

Education

- Oxford University
- Eltham College

Honours

- CBE, for his contribution to education in England

Publications

- Eight books (see Books)

From the archive of Barnaby Lenon